

SATAN EXPOSED!

Who is Satan? Where did he come from? Why does Paul call him the "god of this world"? Indeed, Satan is the quintessential liar. But what are his lies?

Satan's original name: Lucifer

The Bible specifies three archangels by name: Michael, Gabriel, and Lucifer. Two of these archangels - Michael and Gabriel - remain devoted to God. Lucifer, however, is another story. "How you are fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! How you are cut down to the ground, you who weakened the nations! For you have said in your heart: 'I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will also sit on the mount of the congregation on the farthest sides of the north; I will ascend above the heights of the clouds, I will be like the Most High.' Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol, to the lowest depths of the Pit. Those who see you will gaze at you, and consider you, saying: 'Is this the man who made the earth tremble, who shook kingdoms'" (Isaiah 14:12-16).

In Isaiah 14 God condemns the king of Babylon. However, He inspired Isaiah to include a passage about Satan, or rather, Lucifer. Isaiah wrote that Lucifer fell from heaven, and Jesus corroborated this account: "And He (Jesus) said to them, 'I watched Satan fall from heaven like lightning'" (Luke 10:18).

Satan's original name was Lucifer, which means "morning star." Lucifer's hubris motivated his attempt to overthrow God (exalting his "throne above the stars of God"). Furthermore, Isaiah identifies Satan's plan to "weaken the nations." Elsewhere, Satan is described as deceiving the nations (Revelation 12:9).

Ezekiel also describes Lucifer: "Son of man, take up a lamentation for the king of Tyre, and say to him, Thus says the Lord GOD: 'You were the seal of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone was your covering: the sardius, topaz, and diamond, beryl, onyx, and jasper, sapphire, turquoise, and emerald with gold. The workmanship of your timbrels and pipes was prepared for you on the day you were created. You were the anointed cherub who covers; I established you; you were on the holy mountain of God; you walked back and forth in the midst of fiery stones. You were perfect in your ways from the day you were created, till iniquity was found in you. By the abundance of your trading you became filled with violence within, and you sinned. Therefore I cast you as a profane thing out of the mountain of God; and I destroyed you, O covering cherub, from the midst of the fiery stones. Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendor'" (Ezekiel 28:12-17, emphasis mine). Again, in the middle of a condemnation of a king, this time of Tyre, God inspires Ezekiel to include a passage about Lucifer. Ezekiel referred to his subject as being in "Eden, the garden of God." Moreover, this being was the "anointed cherub who covers." Obviously God is not referring to Adam, but to Lucifer.

Ezekiel delivers important clues as to why Lucifer turned into Satan the devil:

God refers to Lucifer as the "anointed cherub who covers." This poetic description suggests that Lucifer occupied a very high position in the government of God. Lucifer was on the "holy mountain of God," which implies he had access to God's throne.

As Isaiah indicated, Lucifer became very proud. "Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall" (Proverbs 16:18). Jesus said that Satan fell "from heaven like lightning" (Luke 10:18). Lucifer was too proud for his own good ("Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty"). As Ezekiel stated, Satan "corrupted" his "wisdom for the sake of" his "splendor."

Lucifer attempted to overthrow God. Because of his position and charisma, and because God entrusted him with authority over one-third of the angels, Lucifer was able to convince an innumerable amount of them to conduct a coup against God. This attempted coup precipitated the first and original star wars.

The universe has never recovered from the wreckage caused by the war between Lucifer and God. In the initial chapters of Genesis we see a ruined world in which the continents are buried underneath the oceans, and the "Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters."

Lucifer's rebellion turned him into Satan the devil. He will again try to overthrow God (Revelation 12), and when he fails, Satan will inspire the false prophet to declare himself to be God incarnate: "Let no one deceive you by any means; for that Day (the day of the Lord, His return to earth) will not come unless the falling away comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God" (II Thessalonians 2:3-4).

Paul calls Satan the "prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the sons of disobedience" (Ephesians 2:2), and the "god of this world" (II Corinthians 4:4). Satan is very angry at the children of God because they will inherit what he believes is rightfully his: the Kingdom of God. Therefore, after his failure to overthrow God (again), Satan will "make war with the rest of her offspring (the members of God's family), who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ" (Revelation 12:17). One tactic Satan has employed, and will always employ, in his war against God's children is deception, the subtle twisting of scripture to distort God's holy truth.

Satan as a snake?

The Bible is rich in metaphor and other figures of speech. For example, Jesus is referred to as a Lamb; the dictator who fights Christ at His return as a beast; and Satan himself as a dragon and roaring lion: "your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour" (I Peter 5:8). Jesus was not a literal lamb, and the dictator will not be an actual beast. Similarly, Herod was not a fox (Luke 13:32). So is it safe to assume that Satan was not really a "serpent"?

The Bible often uses metaphor to describe an individual's character. For example, Herod was as wily as a fox. And Satan is as enchanting and slippery as a snake. "Now the serpent was more cunning than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made" (Genesis 3:1). This implies that Satan is subtle, shrewd and sneaky.

The Lord God said that "you (figuratively, the serpent) shall bruise his heel" (Genesis 3:15). We should not take this literally. This foreshadows the attempt by Satan to destroy Jesus throughout His life. He attempted to kill Jesus at birth (Revelation 12:4), in his childhood (Herod's attempt to destroy the male children under 2 years old), and on the stake, commonly referred to as the "cross." Satan tempted Jesus continuously (Matthew 4:1-11, Hebrews 4:15). "Bruising his heel" is therefore tantamount to Satan's persistent attempt to bother, tempt, and destroy Jesus.

Understanding this will enable us to comprehend the next figure of speech - "He shall bruise your head." No, Adam did not step on the serpent's head. Nor does it imply that Jesus would literally squash Satan's head. However, since the head contains the mind from which all thought derives, this figure of speech alludes to the destruction of Satan's plan. After all, Jesus achieved victory over Satan on the stake. Time and again, Satan tried to tempt Jesus into sinning. One sin would disqualify Jesus from becoming our Savior. He had to be the spotless sacrificial lamb (again, metaphor) depicted in the Old Testament Passover sacrifice. Yet Jesus was nailed to that stake as a sinless man. He therefore achieved victory over Satan's plan.

"Because you have done this, you are cursed more than all cattle, and more than every beast of the field; on your belly you shall go, and you shall eat dust all the days of your life" (Genesis 3:14). Snakes do not literally eat dust, nor did David (Psalms 72:9). As in previous and succeeding scriptures, God is employing a figure of speech to convey the eventual, total defeat of Satan, as depicted in Revelation 20:10.

Satan twists the Scriptures ever so slightly and thus changes their entire meaning. We see this attempt in Matthew 4, in which Satan quotes the Bible. "It is written," said Satan, and he proceeds to distort the meaning of several scriptures. Indeed, Satan has twisted the Bible to "deceive the whole world" (Revelation 12:9). He twisted the initial chapters in Genesis to portray himself as a literal serpent. Rather, he was the "cherub that covers." Ezekiel describes cherubim as creatures that almost defy description. Their appearance inspires awe. "And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle" (Ezekiel 10:14). Lucifer, or Satan, was a cherub. He resembles the creatures mentioned in Ezekiel. He was no common snake.

From the beginning Satan has disguised himself. He has tricked us into believing that he took the form of a snake. And he's been tricking us ever since.

Satan transformed into an "angel of light"

"For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works" (II Corinthians 11:13-15).

Satan has transformed himself into an angel of light. In other words, his lies appear as the truth. And his demons are called ministers of righteousness because their words and actions appear true.

Satan has transformed himself into an "angel of light," a deliverer of truth. However, he's the original and quintessential liar (John 8:44). He has deceived the entire world (Revelation 12:9). And because he's the "god of this world" (II Corinthians 4:4), Satan has inspired mankind's institutions, politics, and yes, religions. And I'm not referring specifically to Buddhism or Islam. I'm referring to mainstream Christianity.

What is Satan most concerned about? Does he care primarily about the governments of the world, or about Muslims or Buddhists? No, they're already deceived. Satan has them in his back pocket. Instead, he's primarily worried about people who "keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ" (Revelation 12:17). True Christians keep the law of God, as found in the first five books of Moses. They keep the ten commandments and the holy days of God (Leviticus 23). They also have the testimony of Jesus; they've accepted Him as their Savior. They have God's Spirit and thus are His children: "For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God. And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together " (Romans 8:15-17).

As children of God, we are "heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ." We'll inherit the kingdom of God (Matthew 25:34) and will become "kings and priests" (Revelation 5:10) with authority over the nations in the millennium (Revelation 2:26).

Right now Satan is the "god of this world." As such, he has authority over the nations, customs, institutions, and religions of this world. He's angry at us because it's our destiny to rule with Christ. He wants what we will inherit: the kingdom of God. This is why Satan is angry not at the average Muslim, Buddhist or atheist. Rather, he is incensed at us, the "heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ."

Satan has deceived the whole world except the elect (Matthew 24:24). Throughout history he has been wherever God has been working. Satan was present in Eden and at the birth, ministry, and death of Jesus. What is he doing today? Obviously he is trying to deceive and destroy God's children, His "offspring" who "keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus."

The Ultimate Lie

Satan's biggest lie is to portray himself as "an angel of light," a deliverer of truth. He and his demons masquerade as ministers of righteousness. He has distorted our very image of Jesus.

If asked, most Christians will portray Satan as a sinister, ethereal being, perhaps clad in a red suit with two horns atop his pointy head. Conversely, they'll portray Jesus as a wispy, effeminate, emaciated man with a neat beard, soft eyes, and wearing a long, white flowing robe. This is the common image of Jesus. This image is false. Satan has distorted God's truth.

Paul and the others warned against false teachers who preach "another Jesus" and "another gospel." Satan has infected these people with his lies. For example:

Satan once belonged to a trinity of archangels (Michael and Gabriel are the other two archangels). The Godhead, however, consists only of God the Father and Jesus (I Corinthians 8:6). Satan has tricked people into believing that the Godhead is a trinity.

Satan is an immortal spirit being whose fate is eternal torment in the "outer darkness" described by Jude. Yet he has convinced us that we have immortal souls (a lie) that go to heaven (a lie) or hell (a fictional place) where they will be tormented for eternity (another lie which portrays God as harsh and unforgiving).

Satan has convinced man that he will ascend into heaven, however Jesus said that no man has ascended into heaven (John 3:13). It was Satan who tried to ascend into heaven and overthrow God's throne.

Time and again Satan has twisted the scriptures to deceive mankind. His greatest lie is disguising himself as an angel of light who delivers the truth. Most people won't recognize him or his lies. In their eyes, Satan's lies (e.g. immortality of the soul, going to heaven or hell when we die, the nailing of the commandments to the stake, etc.) become truth. Satan has distorted the Bible. If we don't want to be under Satan's deceptive and beguiling spell, then we must pray for God's truth. We must read the Bible, from beginning to end. We must realize that the commandments are not 'nailed to the cross.' We must realize that many traditional Christian concepts are false. We must realize that the holy days specified in Leviticus 23 depict the plan of God. And if we're to be a part of that plan, then we must get to know the real Jesus. And we must be aware of the real Satan, the quintessential liar.

You may copy and distribute this information only to friends and family without changes, without charge and with full credit given to the author and publisher. You may not publish it for general audiences.

This publication is intended to be used as a personal study tool. Please know it is not wise to take any man's word for anything, so prove all things for yourself from the pages of your own Bible.

The Church of God, Ministries International 1767 Stumpf Blvd.
Gretna, LA. 70056

More FREE literature is available at our Internet Web Site:

www.thecogmi.org

© Copyright 2010 The Church of God Ministries International. All rights reserved
The activities of the Church of God, Ministries International are paid for by tithes, offerings and donations freely given by Christians and co-workers who are dedicated to preaching the gospel according to Jesus Christ.